

LITTLE MAN & MAID

There was a lit - tle man And he woo'd a lit - tle

The first system of musical notation for the song 'Little Man & Maid'. It consists of a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff, both in 2/4 time. The treble staff contains the melody with lyrics underneath. The bass staff provides a simple accompaniment. The lyrics are: 'There was a lit - tle man And he woo'd a lit - tle'.

maid, And he said, "Lit - tle maid, will you wed, wed,

The second system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melody with lyrics: 'maid, And he said, "Lit - tle maid, will you wed, wed,'. The bass staff continues the accompaniment.

wed? I have lit - tle more to say Than 'will you, yea or

The third system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melody with lyrics: 'wed? I have lit - tle more to say Than 'will you, yea or'. The bass staff continues the accompaniment.

nay?' For least said is soon - est men - ded - ded - ded - ded."

The fourth and final system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melody with lyrics: 'nay?' For least said is soon - est men - ded - ded - ded - ded."'. The bass staff continues the accompaniment and ends with a double bar line.